PROUD CANADA.

Gov.-General Stanley Speaks at Toronto of Her Confidant Strength.

Pandering to the Hoodlum Element--Opinion of the Canadian Thunderer.

THE GOVERNOR GENERAL SPEAKS.

Toronto, Sept. 11—The Governor-General, who arrived here to day, in reply to an address of the Board of Trade, said: "It is a source of great satisfaction to see the confident strength with which the Dominion, firmly relying on the justice of her cause, is able to maintain an attitude of quiet, dignified observation, able to feel certain that the volume of her trade is increasing from day to day. If denied one channel she must find others."

THE DELEGATES GO HOME.

St. John, N. B., Sept. 11—Delegates to Ottawa to arrange terms of union between Newfoundland and the Dominion of Canada, who were here, have left today, having abandoned the project for the present. The reason given is the existence of the present troubles between the United States and Canada, which are likely to prejudice the interests of Newfoundland if she joined her fortunes with the Canadian Confederation.

THE GLOBE'S OPINION.

Toronto, Sept. 11—Referring to the passage by Congress of the Retaliation Bill the Globe says: The whole business is disgraceful to Congress. Canadians must just possess their souls in patience, and hope for the best. The influences at Ottawa should be directed as much as poss ble to do whatever may honorably be done to avert the threatened evil. It is not improbable that the politicians of the Republic may be brought up with a round turn by the great decent element of the American people. It is sure that public opinion in the United States is not so degraded that the country can be carried into a course of wanton aggression by two sets of contemptible politicians competing for the hoodlum element.

FATAL FLOODS IN SPAIN.

Madrid, Sept. 11—The Rivers Jaine Girdalfo, in the Province of Granada, overflowed and washed away bridges and flooded many villages. The people are panic stricken and fleeing to the mountains. Many are drowned, twelve corpses have already been recovered.

SALMON PACK, 1888.

Complete List of the Packs During This Season.

The salmon pack of 1888 will probably fall short of that of 1887 by 69,000 cases. On Fraser river most of the canneries are still running and may increase their pack by one or two thousand cases over the approximate estimate which is given below. The following figures, however, so far as can be ascertained, represent the season's work throughout the province:

FRASER RIVER.

Phoenix	2,500
Wadhams	3,500
Harlock	4,000
B. A. P. Co	8,000
Delta	4,000
Finlay, Durham & Brodie	2,000
Ewen & Co	6,500
Laidlaw & Co	4,000
Todd & Son	7,500
R. C. P. Co	1,500
Wellington P. Co	4,000

SKEENA RIVER.

THE SALTED PACK.

Windsor Co., (Skeena)	300 bbls
Victoria P. Co., (Rivers Inlet)	600 "
Scandanavian Co., "	500 "
Alert Bay Co., (Alert Bay)	30 "
H. B. Co., (Nass)	1200 "
Smith's Inlet Co	200 "
Total	2830 bbls.

As a general rule the cost of packing the 156,500 cases has been higher than in previous years on account of the scarcity of Indian labor. This was the case especially on the Skeena but the good prices that are ruling it is safe to assume that all the northern canneries have made money.

DELTA CROPS.

An Extraordinary Yield—The Grain Saved in Fine Condition.

Mr. M. Baker, produce dealer, returned on Monday from a visit to the Delta farms, where he spent about a week examining into the condition of the crops, and estimating the probable yield of that fine agricultural district. He informs our reporter that the hop crop, which averaged throughout the whole district two and a half tons to the acre, was saved in excellent condition, the breadth of grain grown was about one third greater than last year, while the average yield is fully double what it was in 1887. Three-fourths of the crop is now cut and saved, and several steam threshers are busy at work. The grain is clean, plump and bright—a decidedly better quality than in any previous year. The wheat crop will average about one and a half tons to the acre which is fully three times greater than the average in Ontario. The potato crop is also excellent. Mr. Baker dug up a patch and made a calculation which indicated a yield of 17 tons, or over 1000 bushels to the acre. Turnips, 60 to 80 tons to the acre, and mangolds and carrots equally as large. What fruit there is grown has yielded well and of fair quality. Onions are not so large as in former years, but they are of fine quality. The farmers, encouraged by the success of their operations, will make preparations for more extensive farming next season by bringing more land under cultivation and reclaiming present waste places. The same remarks will apply to Mayne and Lulu Islands and all the islands of the straits.

PORCUPINE CREEK.

A Good Camp—Down to Bed Rock—The Yield.

As at first predicted by all the practical placer miners who visited the locality, says the Donald Truth, Porcupine creek is turning out to be good diggings. One company has reached bedrock, and been rewarded by an ounce a day to the man. Six other companies are sinking shafts to bedrock, which they hope to reach within the month. It is not known what depth will have to be attained on some of the claims before bedrock is reached, but the men who are sinking have confidence in the camp, and will stay by it until they know definitely whether the ground will pay to work or not. On the Discovery claim the bedrock is reached in from 3 to 5 feet; its owners, as the result of their last washing, cleaning up an ounce a day to the man. The gold is coarse and is mixed with white quartz, which indicates that a ledge is not far distant. The largest nugget so far found is worth $7.50, but numbers of them range from $1 to $3 in value. Another company, the Horseshoe, who are operating down the creek from the Discovery claim, sluiced from the surface for a number of days, and cleaned up over $3 a day to the man. They are now sinking to bedrock. Still further down the creek, the Michigan company did some sluicing from the surface, with about the same result as obtained by the Horseshoe men. The French company have the creek turned, and a bedrock shaft was commenced this week, the man in charge remarking, "It is now bedrock or bust with us." The trail from Donald has been badly cut up, owing to recent forest fires. On the fact being made known to Judge Vowell, he authorized Harry Estelle and his partner to clear and put it in good repair. They are at present engaged on the work, and will, the coming week, again have it in good repair.

THE PROVINCIAL FAIR.

Largest ever held in the Province—600 feet of Shedding.

The contract for the construction of neary six hundred feet of shedding for agricultural exhibition has been awarded to Mr. D. McPhadden. When completed these sheds will be the largest in the Province, and will be sufficient for all requirements. The exhibition this year promises to be far ahead of anything which British Columbia has yet attempted. The farmers have been pleased this year with an unusually good harvest, and letters are coming in from all quarters stating that in roots and cereals 1888 will beat all its predecessors. A greater interest is also taken in agricultural matters than ever before. People are beginning to realize that it is to their interest and advantage to make the best possible showing at the provincial fair and will take trouble to prepare their exhibits and make them the best that can be produced in quality and quantity. The dates on which the fair takes place are October 4th, 5th and 6th, so that it is time everything was being put in readiness by intending exhibitors for the occasion. The preparations to accommodate stock, roots, cereals, manufactures, &c., are going ahead and as the management is in energetic hands there need be no fear that everything will not be done up to the handle.

A PROTEST.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:

SIR,—Permit me to disclaim the authorship of that singular production which was published in "The Town Major" of yesterday's issue, as my sermon. I give the writer of the article every credit for sincerity, but must question the advisability of his conduct in giving his own version and such a very quaint version as if it was a genuine abstract of the original. I have never yet had the imperti nence to issue to the world any of my compositions. Is it fair then that I should be dragged before the public as the author of phrases of questionable morality and execrable taste? The "Town Major" is, I am sure, disinterested in his attempt to "boom" the Cathedral, but I fail to appreciate the methods he is adopting to that praiseworthy end. Yours, very truly, THE PREACHER.

POLICE COURT.

(Before City Police Magistrate Richards, Q. C.)

TO-DAY'S DISPATCHES.

Northern Pacific Changes--Road Secures All-Rail Connection With Puget Sound.

Liquor Dealers in Council--Hill for Governor in New York --Grand Army Men.

NORTHERN PACIFIC CHANGE.

New York, Sept. 11—The trouble in management of the Northern Pacific has been amicably arranged and changes are to be made at the ensuing annual election. President Robert Harris resigns and Vice-President Oakes will be elected in his place. Harris will take the position of chairman of the board of directors, to be created. August Belmont retires from the board of directors, and John Bullet, of Philadelphia will be elected in his place. The changes are understood to be in the interest of the Villard syndicate.

A SCHOONER LOST.

Chicago, Sept. 11—A telegram from Port Huron this afternoon, states that the schooner Cheney Ames foundered in Lake Huron and all hands went to the bottom with her. The news was reported by the captain of the schooner Oliver Mitchell, which was in company with the Cheney Ames at the time of the disaster. Both schooners were bound down the lakes from Chicago with grain. The Ames was owned by Captain R. Meyers, of Chicago, and the crew was composed of Chicago men. Captain Meyers is here visiting his family, having left his son in command of the vessel.

A NORTHERN PACIFIC PURCHASE.

Philadelphia Sept. 11—The Northern Pacific Railway Company has purchased the entire system of the Coeur D' Alene Railway and Navigation Co., comprising a number of steamers which play on Lake Coeur D' Alene and the Coeur D' Alene river, as well as twenty-eight miles of narrow guage railway extending from Coeur Da Lene Mission through the mining region of that name. The newly acquired property gives the Northern Pacific an all rail connection with Puget Sound and mines in Idaho Territory. The Narrow Guage will be widened to the standard guage. The Coeur D' Alene line pays two per cent quarterly upon its capital of $2,000,000. There are $360,000 of six per cent bonds outstanding

MEXICAN PASTIME.

Tombstone, Ariz., Sept. 11—A young man, named Chas. Jones, about 27 years old and a cowboy, after being paid his wages for a number of months work, started to cross the line into Mexico about ten days ago, to purchase some horses. He had in all $325, and speaking of his proposed trip to some friends said: "If I escape murderers and robbers and buy the horses I will never go into Mexico again; its too risky." His words were only too true, for intelligence was received here yesterday that Jones' body was found about six miles over the line riddled with bullets and stripped of everything. Americans do not stand any show for their lives unless going with a good armed escort into Sonora, and the killing of Americans for almost nothing seems to be their chief mode of pastime.

VOTE IN MAINE.

Bangor, Maine, Sept. 11—One hundred an four towns in the fourth Congressional district give a Republican vote for Government of 15,163; Democratic, 10,707; Prohibition, 612. Republican plurality, 4,456; against 3,605 two years ago. The towns still to be heard from give Republican plurality of 101. Boutille, Republican for Congress, will have 4,000 to 5,000 plurality, against 3,715 two years ago.

The returns show a Republican gain of one Senator in Knox county, one in Waldo and two in York. This makes the Senate unanimous. If gains and losses continue at the present ratio, the House will be 122 Republicans to 27 Democrats Mr. Manly says every county was carried by Republicans. The Republican plurality for Governor is fully 20,000—three hundred towns out of a total of 507 give Burleigh, Republican, for Governor, 65,016; Putnam, Democrat, 48,089.

THE U. S. SENATE.

Washington, Sept. 11—The Senate has passed the Fourth of July Claims Bill, providing for the re-embursement of those who suffered small losses during the war.

Senator Sherman reported in the Senate a substitute for the bill against Trusts. It provides that all contracts and agreement of trusts combinations made with a view to prevent a full and free competition in importation, transportation, or sale of any article of home or foreign production or manufacture, shall be declared void. The penalty fixed for any compensations of above character are $10,000 and 5 years in the penitentiary.

LIQUOR DEALERS IN COUNCIL.

New York, Sept. 11—Third annual convention of the National Protective Association of the liquor dealers is in session. Eight hundred members are in the association from all the cities in the union, representing $150,000,000 of invested capital. J. M. Atherton, of Kentucky, is President, C. C. Turney's St Louis, Secretary. The object of the meeting is to devise some system of license applicable to all branches of trade.

GRAND ARMY MEN.

Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 11—To-day is the Grand Army day here. Posts from all parts of the country have been pouring in during the night, and to-day the grand parade of veterans was reviewed by General Sherman and other leaders. The old soldiers wildly cheered the General as he passed.

NEW YORK DEMOCRATS.

Buffalo, Sept. 11—The clans are gathering for the Democratic State Convention to morrow. Prominent Democrats from all parts of the state are present. The general sentiment among the delegates is that Hill will be nominated for Governor and Jones for Lieutenant-Governor.

THE FEVER.

Jacksonville, Sept, 11—Eighty deaths up to noon; 16 new cases; total number of cases to date, 648; of these 500 are under treatment.

DARK SECRET FOUND.

New York, Sept. 11—Capt. William Andrews and his dory "Dark Secret," in which he attempted to cross the ocean, were picked up the Norwegian bark Norse and landed here. The captain has abandoned the trip.

—The late fire in San Francisco cleared out a number of old rookeries which will be replaced by substantial buildings.

HON. WM. McDOUGALL

Deprecates "War Talk" by the Dominion Ministers.

Toronto, Sept. 5—Hon. Wm. McDougall has written a strong letter to the Globe attacking Conservative politicians for their indiscreet and defiant utterances at Hagersville and Aylmer against the United States. Hon. Mr. McDougall goes over the complaints against Canada made by President Cleveland in his message and argues against the Canadian case. He says: "The complainants are sixty millions of people, the most enlightened, most wealthy and most powerful on the continent. Except against attacks by ironclads at a few seaports they are, as a nation, invulnerable. We, the respondents, are almost five millions, scattered along their northern frontier for a distance of three thousand miles without a first or even a second rate fortress on the whole line. Vessels of war or soldiers trained and equipped for battle we have none, and yet there are knights rampant and baronets expectant who insist that we are quite strong enough to "lock horns with Brother Jonathan." In closing Mr. McDougall says: "I venture to protest against the Canadian Government's misinterpretation of the treaty, and the misrepresentation, as I believe, of the honest opinions of the Canadian people. I do not believe our industrious, peaceable, and for the most part, contented, Canadians are anxious to engage in a war of retaliation, much less a war of carnage, with the great nation on our southern border, because their government demands reciprocity in commerce and navigation, and threatens to treat us as we are treating them in case of a refusal."

NINETEEN KNOTS PER HOUR.

Speed Attained by the New Steamer Islander on the Clyde.

A telegram to the C. P. N. Co. states that the steamer Islander had a trial trip on the Clyde on Saturday last when she attained the excellent speed of 19 knots per hour. This is certainly cheering news to the company and to the British Columbia public who in these days desire when business calls them to move like the rest of the world with the utmost dispatch. The Islander will be a splendid acquisition to these waters and will have the effect of popularizing travel between Victoria and the sister cities.

Yom Kippur.

At sundown on Friday the Jewish residents will commence the Feast of Atonement. The stores will be kept closed during the holiday. Services will be held in the Synagogue at 6:30 o'clock on Friday evening, and will continue until 8:30 o'clock. Mr. H. Bornstein will officiate. The services will be continued on Saturday morning and continue throughout the day. This month is the month of feasts and during next week the Feast of the Tabernacle will be celebrated.

Johnson Street Sewer.

A paragraph having appeared in the Colonist of the 8th inst., stating that "the plans for the Johnson street sewer have been completed, &c.," we beg to inform our readers that such is not the case. The plans are still in the hands of the city engineer and will not be completed till to-morrow evening, in time to be laid before the Council. The plans follow closely the lines of the "Pickering plan, except in the reservoir, which it is intended to have built of brick instead of iron. Even this latter is not decided on as yet. The manner of letting the contract and other matters of detail can not be determined on without the sanction of the Council. Therefore the statement of our contemporary is calculated to mislead the public and create false impressions.

Marine Notes.

H. M. S. Espeigle cleared from Honolulu for Esquimalt on the 27th of August.

The revenue cutter Bear sailed from San Francisco for Mare Island on Friday last.

Halifax, Sept. 7—The British war ship Canada arrived yesterday from West Indies.

Ship Geo. F. Manson was towed to sea yesterday morning by the steamer Alexander.

The whaling schooner Sno, lost in the Behring Sea, was owned by S. H. Frank & Co., of San Francisco.

Bark T. A. Pope arrived in San Francisco yesterday afternoon. The bark was reported lost some time ago.

Steamer Dunsmuir will be launched in a few days. She will be again placed on the Nanaimo-New Westminster route.

Without Capital.

It is bad beginning business without capital. It is hard marketing with empty pockets. We want a nest-egg, for hens will lay where there are eggs already. It is true you must bake with the flour you have, but if the sack is empty, it might be quite as well not to set up for a baker. Making bricks without straw is easy enough, compared with making money when you have none to start with. You, young gentleman, stay, as a journeyman a little longer, till you have saved a few pounds; fly when your wings have got feathers; but if you try it too soon, you will be like the young rook that broke its neck through trying to fly before it was fledged. Every minnow wants to be a whale, but it is prudent to be a little fish, while you have but little water; when your pond becomes the sea, then swell as much as you like. Trading without capital is like building a house without bricks, making a fire without sticks, burning needles without wood; it back more into bricks, and lands them in a fit.—"John Plowman's Sermon," Spurgeon.

CLEVELAND'S LETTER.

In the President's letter to the Democratic Convention, accepting the nomination for re-election, we have the whole trade policy of that party in a nut-shell. The theory advanced that the revenue of a country should be confined to the requirements of the public service is nothing new in the history of political economy, and that this revenue should be collected on imported goods with an internal revenue on luxuries, such as tobacco and malt liquors. That these theories are a step towards the great principles of free trade, as laid down by Cobden, must be admitted. In our own Dominion, under the boasted N. P., we have have our consumers, principally the farming classes, paying not only a large portion of the revenues, but also large sums which go into the pockets of our manufacturing monopolists. That the infant industries of a new country should be protected by a fair tax, not by a tax almost prohibitory, is admitted. The greater the import duty the dearer is every article made to the consumer, while the producer does not receive a like ratio for the fruits of his labor. It is to the natural productions of the Dominion we must look for our wealth, and in order to obtain a market, that market must be sought abroad. To-day grain does not demand as high a price in Liverpool as it did previous to the adoption of the N. P. By our almost prohibitory tariff, we drove the British consumers to seek for other resources for their cereals, as the civil war in the United States drove the cotton men of Manchester to India. The developments of the Nor'western provinces of that country, as a granary for the British consumer, has become a fact in reality within the past few years, and the consequence is that our principal producer, the farmer, has to pay more for the articles required for use and receives less for the fruits of his industry. That our farming classes demand from the Federal Government more consideration than the incipient manufacturers of a few industries that may not, for generations, be enabled to compete with those of older lands, can not be denied. The farmer sells in the lowest and buys in the highest markets of the world.

The President proposes to stimulate domestic enterprise by freeing from duty the imported raw material. The interests of the working man are not neglected, and it is the intention to devise restrictions for the prohibitation of foreign laborers, which flock to the shores of the Republic in swarms. Similar measures are sought after by the various working men's and trades' unions in England, and it were well if we in Canada, especially in this province, had a similar policy. Canada is in want of population, but that population is not required in our cities and towns; it is wanted for our great lone land in the northwest, and the almost impenetrable forests of the province of British Columbia, to bring our deserts into cultivation and help to build up in the west a Greater Britain.

DISCOURAGING HOME INDUSTRY.

A late issue of the Vancouver News-Advertiser contained the following significant paragraph:

Mr. G. R. Robertson, of Robertson & Co., the real estate agents on Cordova street, has just returned from Victoria, where he completed a contract with the Provincial Government for school furniture for the Victoria schools. Besides this order, which Mr. Robertson placed with the eastern firm for which he is agent, he has just received a large shipment of similar furniture for the new school house on Burrard street, and shortly expects another shipment to arrive for the school at Westminster.

There certainly must be something rotten in the state of the educational department. We have repeatedly shown that the minister at the head of the department is influenced by motives and feelings which are not conducive to the best interests of our school system or the advancement of the great cause of education. The department, it is well known, is managed extravagantly and corruptly; but although favoritism and nepotism prevail to an alarming extent, it was not generally believed that the crass stupidity of those responsible for the present condition and operation of the school law would not extend to the discouragement of local enterprises and the placing of a premium upon the manufactures of Ontario workmen. We had thought that John Robson would have been British Columbia first, but it appears that the reed we leaned upon was a broken one. There are mechanics in Victoria quite as well able to make the desks required for our schools as those of any other city in the Dominion. Not only are desks brought from a distance, to the detriment of our own mechanics, but furniture has actually been borrowed from manufacturers to supply schools until the arrival of the foreign made article. This is contemptible conduct upon the part of a government; but what need we expect from a Minister who appoints incompetent men—incompetent morally and intellectually—to teach the youths of the Province, but legislates in the interest of a class and in opposition to the well-understood wishes of the people most directly concerned. The educational department is an Augean stable that must be cleaned out, or it will soon crumble to pieces under the accumulated misdeeds and flagrant dishonesties of the past five years.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Dr. Robt. Nourse, speaking of the 5,000 opium and morphine victims in San Francisco, said during Saturday evening's lecture, that if the Chinese are going to bring their wives into this country then emphatically the Chinese must go. We have enough of our own.

Oregonian: That coal should sell for $3 per ton on Puget Sound and in San Francisco for $14, and lumber should be worth $18 per thousand in San Francisco when it sells at $6 on the Sound, suggests that a few more people should follow the example of the Davis brothers and put in ships, the work of which would set the ringsters to ruminating.

Donald Truth: John A. Mara of Kamloops will not have a walk over at the next election for member of the Dominion Parliament. The Grits of Kootenay, and they are not only numerous but campaigners from away back, have a candidate that they propose to elect, or know the reason why. The name of their man is W. A. McLean.

Mr. Cleveland in his letter of acceptance makes a bid for the brewers' vote which will scarcely be appreciated by the temperance people. He says: "But in accomplishing the reform we have entered upon, the necessity of which is so obvious, I believe we should be content with a reduction of revenue, involving prohibition of importations and removal of the internal tax upon whisky."

The Department of Customs has decided that the Mormon Bible is not indecent or immoral, and that when imported it should not be charged at the rate of 5 per cent. as on Christian Bibles, but 15 per cent. as on ordinary books, it not being a Bible in the proper sense of the work, but merely a book containing the tenets of the Mormon faith. This point has been decided through a Mormon missionary in Nova Scotia importing a number of Bibles which the Collector of Customs thought might be prohibited and therefore detained.

The fire in San Francisco, where one or two small coal yards received a scorching, will be used as a pretext for a further advance in the price all along the line. King Rab has been threatening that if these squibs in the TIMES were not discontinued he would refuse to sell any coal to Victoria, which he claims to be now doing at a loss!!! In the meantime coal is $10 a ton in Victoria, seventy miles from the coal mines. In Toronto, anthracite coal is selling for $6, and Toronto is several hundred miles away from the mines.

The Sunday Colonist says: "It's (THE TIMES) sole motive is that which could only ooze from minds which grovel in baseness." This is refreshing from the organ of Prof. Menzies and Mrs. Crawford.

Official statistics prepared for the Dominion Government show that the immigration to Canada this season is substantially larger than that of 1887. The figures, of course, relate only to the first seven months of the present year, but they show the following totals: Settlers in Quebec, 4,160; Ontario, 10,704; Manitoba, 5,946; Western States, 7,487; making a total of 28,287. This, it will be seen, includes the large number of immigrants found for the Western States who pass through Quebec and Montreal. The total increase, however—in which of course, Canada has a full share—is very gratifying, being no less than 4,089 as compared with the first seven months of 1887. The amount of money possessed by the incomers was no less than $1,025,700. As to the class of the new arrivals, the Dominion Government agent at Montreal, through whose hands all have to pass, reports: "The immigrants arriving at Montreal up to the present time have been of the most healthy class, and are quite worthy to become the industrious farm hands of the Eastern, and permanent settlers of the Western, Provinces of Canada."

In regard to the proposed crofter settlement at San Juan, on Vancouver Island, which was spoken of in detail some time ago, we understand that Lord Lothian, the Secretary of State for Scotland, has intimated to Mr. Alexander Begg, the delegate from British Columbia, that the consideration of the scheme which he has laid before the Imperial Government must be postponed until the autumn session. It will then be referred to the Select Parliamentary Committee, which is to consider the whole question of emigration; and Lord Lothian has suggested that Mr. Begg should be on the spot to lay his proposals in detail before the Committee, and make any explanations that may be necessary. Mr. Begg has himself left for Scotland. The proposals which will thus be brought before the Parliamentary Committee had in view, it will be remembered, the ultimate settlement in British Columbia of 1250 Crofter families. Each family is to receive a loan of £120, £150,000 in all. For the repayment of this amount by the Crofters the British Columbia Government would undertake responsibility, and in the case of this season's Crofter settlers in Manitoba, the repayment by the Crofters would be so apportioned as to yield to the Imperial treasury a reasonable interest on the money advanced. The former proposal, made by the Imperial to the British Columbia Government, was that British Columbia should pay an interest of 3½ per cent. on the money advanced, but this the Provincial Government was not unnaturally unable to accept. It is now of course clear that even if the present proposal is accepted by the Imperial Government no settlement can now take place until next season.

EXTRACTING GOLD.

The Reduction of Low Grade Ores by Electricity.

The Utah Mining and Reduction Company, whose works are located at Brigham, ten miles south of Salt Lake City, are using the new "Meech process" in the reduction of their low grade and rebellious ores with success. The ore is passed through a crusher and rolls, crushed to 40 mesh fine, thence into a disintegrating machine, four tons at a time, through a valve, with sufficient water and chemicals to treat the sulphur and refractory elements. Steam is then admitted to a pressure of one hundred (100) pounds per square inch, and, at the same time, the mullers are revolved at about 30 revolutions per minute, generating electricity in such volume as to greatly assist is the decomposition of the ore. This is continued for 3 hours. The ore is reduced to a palpable powder, many times finer than is possible by other methods, and is thoroughly decomposed and desulphurized. The water absorbs the chemicals, every atom of gold is made bright and in condition for amalgamation. The pulp is now discharged into the amalgamator below, a revolving machine seven feet long and five feet in diameter, in which are copper plates placed lengthwise, and by hydrostatic pressure quicksilver is thoroughly pressed through the ore, by a settler of peculiar shape, having an electric copper wire broom to assist in gathering the fine amalgam before the tailings are discharged. The cost of the treatment is from two to three dollars per ton, and as the gold ores treated run from twelve to twenty dollars per ton, it leaves a handsome margin for the owners. The ore veins are large, and thousands of tons, or enough to supply the mill for the next 100 years, are already in sight. By this process about 90 per cent. of the gold is saved. The works occupy about nine acres of land on the banks of Jordan river and consist of two main buildings 33x64 and 24x34, one two-story boarding house, one blacksmith shop, two 85 horse-power engines, one crusher, one roll, and other necessary appurtenances are connected with the mines by the Denver & Rio Grande and Western Railway, and demonstrates in a practical manner the immense sums that can be realized from the treatment of low grade and refractory ore dumps, that have heretofore been considered absolutely worthless.—Scientific American.

MINING NEWS.

(Donald Truth.)

Development work and ore extraction at the great Monarch mine, three miles from Field, is progressing favorably under the management of Superintendent Davis. The C. P. R. has put in a side track to the ground, and all the company's material for tramways is delivered. Eight men are at work extracting ore for shipment, and twenty-eight employed at outside work, such as grading for the tramways, ore bins, etc. Ore shipments to the company's reduction works at Vancouver will begin by October 1st. The company can justly claim the honor of being the first concern in British Columbia to go to work systematically and on a large scale to develop the mineral resources of the province.

On Jubilee mountain, work on the consolidated shaft is being pushed night and day. Charley Law, one of the claim-owners interested, has gone to Toronto to make arrangements for prospecting the mountain on a large scale. There is a big body of ore in Jubilee, and the boys, to be rewarded for their perseverance, should strike it.

Since the closing down of ore extraction at Lanark mine, things have been running along quietly at Illecillewaet. The usual amount of development and assessment work is being done by the small owners. To make a camp hum requires at least one big company to be at work.

NEW WESTMINSTER NEWS.

(From the Columbian.)

Senator Abbott and his brother, Mr. Henry Abbott, inspected Ewen's cannery while on the Fraser. Several ladies accompanied them.

Besides a number of white men there are 150 Chinamen at work at present on the Matsqui dyke, and the force will be increased in a few days. The dyke will reclaim 10,000 acres of very rich soil.

The keel of the new stern-wheel steamer, which is building at Sapperton under the supervision of Captain Insley, was laid this morning.

To-day Messrs. D. W. Port and Co. shipped to Toronto 2,000 pounds of frozen salmon, and during the week no less than 12,000 pounds were sent east. Mr. W. H. Vianen also sent away 2,500 pounds to different parts of the province to-day and next week he will send 5000 pounds of frozen salmon to Avis, a Winnipeg fish dealer.

Mr. C. M. McNaughten laid on our table this morning two beautiful, large apples, which came from a tree grown in his garden. This is the first year the tree has borne fruit, and the dimensions of the largest apple were 14¾ inches in circumference, and weighed 18 ounces. The smaller apple, which was the smallest on the tree, weighed 14 ounces, and measured 12½ inches in circumference.

Fell Down a Well.

Last evening, says the Columbian, about 7:30 o'clock, while a young lad in the employ of Mr. Thomas Cunningham, who was riding a mare, was driving home some cows from the brush two or three hundred yards behind Montreal street, suddenly the mare fell down a well some 15 feet deep, the boy managing in some way or another to catch on to the edge of the pit and thus escaped being carried down also. There the poor animal stayed in several feet of water until 12 o'clock last night, for it was not until then, even with the aid of some 20 men, that Mr. Cunningham was able to extricate her. The means adopted for this purpose were as follows: An incline shaft was dug to the foot of the well when by means of a derrick, the mare was raised to the surface apparently none the worse for her rough experience. The lad who was riding had a narrow escape, for had he gone down the well the chances are that between the several feet of water and the kicking of the animal he would have been killed. The mare was a valuable one and it was a fortunate thing for Mr. Cunningham that some serious injury was not done her.

I do not believe that Ayer's Sarsaparilla has an equal as a cure for Scrofulous Humors. It is pleasant to take, gives strength to the body, and produces a more permanent result than any medicine I ever used. —E. Haines, North Lindale, Ohio.

I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla, in my family, for Scrofula, and know, if it is taken faithfully it will thoroughly eradicate this terrible disease. —W. F. Fowler, M.D., Greenville, Tenn.

For forty years I have suffered with Erysipelas. I have tried various remedies for my complaint, but found no relief until I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After taking ten bottles of this medicine I am completely cured. —M. C. Amesbury, Rockport, Me.

I have suffered, for years, from Catarrh, which was so severe that it destroyed my appetite and weakened my system. After trying other remedies, without relief, I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, in a few months, was cured. —Susan L. Cook, 909 Albany st., Boston, Mass.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is superior to any blood purifier that I ever tried. I have taken it for Scrofula, Canker, and Salt-Rheum, and received much benefit from it. It is good, also, for a weak stomach. —Millie Jane Peirce, S. Bradford, Mass. ††

Athens, Sept. 10—Two earthquake shocks have occurred at Tostizza, on the Corinthian Gulf, doing great damage. Troops have been despatched with a supply of tents or the homeless and provisions for the destitute.

INCREASING THE ARMY.

Vienna, Sept. 10—An Imperial decree orders that the Austrian army be increased by fifteen new batteries and four new companies composed of Bosnians.

PRINCE OF WALES WELCOMED.

The Prince of Wales arrived here today to witness the Austrian army manoeuvres. The Prince was received by a guard of honor and members of the English Embassy. He visited the Emperor this afternoon, and later the Emperor returned the visit. A dinner in the Prince's honor will be given to-night at Hofburgh Castle.

JOHN AND THE COAST.

San Francisco, Sept. 10—It is understood here that the leading Chinese intend making a bitter fight against the Scott bill. They have already retained counsel and propose making a test case of these Chinese who will arrive on the steamship City of New York. The point they will make is that the City of New York being an American ship, the Chinese who took passage on her were on American soil, and that the provisions of the Scott bill will not be operative as against them, because the bill was not then nor has as yet been signed by the President. They will also endeavor to land the Chinese arriving by the British steamer Belgic, which is due Wednesday. The point in this case will be that the Scott bill is not yet in force, and therefore not applicable. It is believed the latter point is weak, especially so should the President sign the bill before the arrival of the Belgic.

ADMISSION DAY.

Admission Day was observed by a general suspension of business. People crowded the various ferries intent upon spending the day in the country. Many accompanied the Knight Templars on an excursion up the bay. Vast numbers also visited the scene of yesterday's fire. A number of excursions were well patronized.

WIT AND WISDOM.

The editor of the Daily Astorian is moved to rise and remark: Maiden ladies on the beach justly object to have their clothes stolen when they happen to leave off their bathing suits, it being embarrassing in the absence of a barrel.

Little Girl—Mamma, I want you to do me a favor.

Mother—What is it, Fanny?

Little Girl—I want you to make me a present of a nice new baby brother, but papa isn't to know anything about it until he sees it.—Detroit News.

A Warning.

The modes of death's approach are various, and statistics show conclusively that more persons die from diseases of the throat and lungs than any other. It is probable that everyone, without exception, receives vast numbers of tubercle germs into the system and when these germs fall upon suitable soil they start into life and develop, at first slowly and is shown by a slight tickling sensation in the throat and if allowed to continue their ravages they extend to the head, causing catarrh. Now all this is dangerous and if allowed to proceed will in time cause death. At the onset you must set with promptness; allowing a cold to go without attention is dangerous and may lose you your life. As soon as you feel that something is wrong with your throat, lungs or nostrils, obtain a bottle of Boschee's German Syrup. It will give you immediate relief. *

OUR NEIGHBOR'S PITY.

That day our little one lay dead,
And we were sad and sore of heart,
And all the joy of life seemed fled,
Our neighbor sought to ease the smart.
Oh! strange sweet power of sympathy!
That grief should find assuagement thus!
Our sorrow seemed the less to be,
The more we thought, she pities us!

And then she said, how blest was she,
Since God had still denied her prayer,
Nor set a baby on her knee;
For such a gift meant such a care!
Our pain was stilled by sad surprise;
New feelings in our heart did stir,
We looked into our neighbor's eyes,
And pitied her—and pitied her.

—Daniel McIntyre Henderson.

IN THE NATIONAL LIBRARY.

Reservoir for the Newspapers—Maps of All Sorts and Sizes—Magazines.

The great reservoir for the newspapers of the library is away down under the crypt, seventeen feet below the ground and on a level with the tomb of Washington. The dome with its 8,000,000 pounds of iron and stone rests over them, and the light of the sun never shines upon their backs except when they are carried out for reference. Going down among these newspapers is like entering the catacombs, and a wonderful catacomb of intellectual life they are. You wander in and out through narrow walls of bound papers surrounded by the dry bones of the thought of two centuries. The brains of a dozen nations and of hundreds of thousands of minds are stored away in these coffin like book covers, and could the thoughts represented here have utterance they would form a babel worse than the mad jargon of the famed tower of the scriptures. There are more than 5,000 fat volumes of newspapers stored away here in the dark, and the musty smell is the only thing that greets you as you walk through them by the flickering light of the spectral gas jet.

There are other intellectual ghosts here in the shapes of maps, and about 10,000 of these of all sizes from that of a page of letter paper to one made during the centennial, big enough to carpet a big parlor, lie around you. Speak to the keeper and he will show you some rare and curious ones. He has some made on the revolutionary battle fields in the pen and ink sketches of the officers of both armies. He takes pride in this collection and says he has nearly every work the map producing mind has made since the beginning of the government.

All the periodicals of the country come to the national library, and there are more than 10,000 bound volumes of magazines. One whole story of one of the wings is devoted to these, and they form an invaluable collection of articles upon almost every subject. A book is published which gives an index to magazine literature. It is known as "Poole's Index," and it gives references to nearly all of the prominent magazines that have been published. By the use of it the literary people dig many good things out of these magazines, and they are used perhaps more than any other class of books in the library.—Frank G. Carpenter in The Cosmopolitan.

Not Afraid of Girard.

A man who had just set up in the hardware business, and who had been a clerk where the eccentric millionaire, Stephen Girard, had been in the habit of trading, applied to him for a share of his patronage. Girard bought of him, but when the bill was sent in he found fault and marked down the prices. "Cask of nails," he growled, "which I was offered for so and so. You have charged so and so, and you must take it off."

"I cannot do it," said the young merchant.

"But you must do it," roared Girard.

"I cannot and will not," was the final reply.

Girard bolted out, apparently in a rage, but soon after sent a check for the whole bill. The young man began to relent and say to himself: "Perhaps he was offered them at that price, but it is all over now. I am sorry I did not reduce the bill and get it out of him on something else. His trade would have been worth a good deal to me."

By and by, Girard came again and gave him another order. The young man was very courteous and said he was almost sorry he did not reduce the former bill.

"Reduce a bill!" exclaimed Girard; "had you done it I would never trade with you again. I merely meant to see if you had cheated me."—Detroit Free Press.

Mr. Gladstone is very methodical. Not only are his books arranged in the most orderly and convenient way, but he has one desk for his private correspondence, another for public affairs, and another at which he conducts his historical and Homeric researches.—Chicago Tribune.

McCaw, Custom House, Toronto, writes: "My wife was troubled with Dyspepsia and Rheumatism for a long time; she tried many different medicines, but did not get any relief until she used Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure. She has taken two bottles of it, and now finds herself in better health than she has been for years." *

—People who reside or sojourn in regions of country where fever and ague and bilious remittent fever are prevalent, should be particularly careful to regulate digestion, the liver and the bowels, before the approach of the season for the periodic malady. The timely use of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure is a valuable safeguard against the malarial scourge. It is acknowledged to be the best blood purifier in the market. *

A Coming Event.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Valpey, of San Jose, Cal., have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter Sadie to Henry E. Jamieson, on Sunday, 16th September, in the Christian Church, San Jose. The young lady is well known in Victoria and Cowichan, where the family resided for a length of time several years ago.

Medals for Rescuing a Crew.

The British consul at San Francisco has received information that the British Government has forwarded gold and silver medals and other testimonials to Capt. H. M. Hayward of the Oceanic and to Chief Officer Hart and four sailors of the same steamer, as a reward for their services in rescuing the crew of the British bark Henry James, which was wrecked on Palmyra island a few months ago.

Bear Steaks.

On Sunday last, H. O'Brien shot a bear on the Goldstream hills which weighed about 400 pounds. Two years ago Mr. O'Brien fired at a large black bear in the same locality and he asserts that the one killed on Sunday was the same animal. The fortunate sportsman returned to this city on Sunday evening with the skin and four quarters of the bear.

Our Local Artists.

Messrs. Sam Maclure and T. Bamford arrived from Samas Sunday evening where they had been sketching for the past two or three weeks. They obtained several very nice views around Sumas Lake, but the air was too smoky for them to go up on to the mountains. On the way to Victoria they came down the river in canoes and transferred to paper some of the choice scenes witnessed along the banks of the lordly Fraser. Beautiful weather was experienced during the whole trip. Mr. Maclure intends to return to do some more sketching.

The Boom.

The wedding boom shows no sign of going under. Some say there will be six weddings this week, some say seven. There are at least three or four more on the string than there were at the last of the week, and the list is daily agrowing. Next Saturday it is understood that a certain young gentleman and the only daughter of an ex-M. P. P. who lives in the country, will be married at nine in the morning and leave on the boat in the afternoon for Frisco. Two school teachers in the suburbs have furnished their house—look out.

The Cariboo Fly.

The steamer Cariboo Fly, Capt. Meyer, left for Skeena and way ports at 1 p. m. to-day with the mails, a full load of freight and the following passengers: Messrs. Henderson and Patton, for Fort Rupert, to prospect; E. Johnson, for Skeena; Mr. and Mrs. H. Simpson, for White Beach; Mrs. R. H. Pidcock, for Alert Bay; Stephen J. Carthew, for Rivers Inlet, and about 20 Indians for Bella Bella. The Fly will return in about eight days with a full load of salmon from the Skeena.

R. E. Church Concert.

Yesterday's rehearsal for choir and solos gave promise of a performance of rare excellence. The programme presents to us ten solo singers, five sopranos, one alto, two tenors, and two basses. The choir is composed of about forty fresh and well trained voices; its members of different church choirs are all united to one and the same end, to raise the standard of public taste to a nobler pitch the means of which are only to be found in discipline and love for the world, and this for charity sake. The public of Victoria is expected to take its full share in this effort by going to the concert to-morrow night en masse.

The Blooming "Fly."

He was a young man from the "bold country, doncher know," and he was a guest at one of our leading hotels. Wanting a conveyance to take in the sights he sought the services of the obliging clerk of the hostelry, and asked to be accommodated with a "fly." Tom hied away to that bashful Hibernian, Mr. Short, on Fort street, who sells all kinds of "flies," and purchased a very tempting fly, enough to attract any pike, salmon or trout that ever swam. The blooming Englishman in due time asked if the "fly" had been obtained, and was thereon presented with the article by the obliging clerk. "Oh! blow yer blooming fly, what do you takes us for, hanyhow? I want a trap!" There were no rat traps on hand, and the stranger was accommodated with a back instead. Tableaux.

Death of Mrs. A. Jack.

It is a sad duty to announce the demise of Agnes Main, wife of our respected fellow citizen, Mr. Alexander Jack. Since the organization of the Protestant Orphans' Home the deceased took an active interest in the care of the orphans, and was Honorary Secretary of the Orphanage for many years. She arrived in this city in 1862, and since that time has taken an active part in ameliorating the condition of the suffering and needy. Mrs. Jack was a truly Christian lady, beloved and respected by all with whom she came in contact. For some time the deceased was a sufferer from dropsy, and passed peacefully away this morning at 1 o'clock. She leaves one sister, Mr. W. Lorimer. The funeral will take place on Thursday next, at 2 o'clock, from the residence, Michigan street, James Bay.

DEATH OF T. ELWYN.

An Old and Respected Pioneer Passes Away.

Again the grim destroyer of mortality claims a victim from amongst the fast decreasing ranks of our pioneers. This time in the person of Thos. Elwyn, who passed quietly to the "other side" this afternoon at 1 o'clock. The deceased gentleman arrived in this colony from England in 1859. The deceased was appointed Stipendary Magistrate and Gold Commissioner by the late Sir James Douglas. From Quesnelle he accompanied the Western Union Telegraph exploration party through Fraser Lake and Stickeen country.

In 1862 he was appointed "judge" or gold commissioner for Cariboo, holding his courts at Williams Creek and Richfield, where he was looked upon by the rude miners as an official who discharged his duty without fear, favor or affection. His decisions were received with approval as they were always free from partiality. This is saying a good deal when it is borne in mind that some of the cases brought before him at the time involved large interests. The gold escort established by the Government in '61, only guaranteeing the same responsibility as the postoffice, the Government were petitioned to establish one on a responsible basis, the same as in Australia. This was done in the fall of '62, when the deceased officer was placed in command, a position he retained till the gold escort was abandoned. During his connection with that body he displayed his wonted ability in the discharge of his duty, which earned for him encomiums from all he came in contact with. Returning to Victoria, deceased accepted the position of purser on the H. B. Co.'s steamers, and severed his connection with that company to accept of the position of Deputy Provincial Secretary, under the Elliott administration.

The deceased gentleman was born in Ireland in 1837, his father being an officer in the Royal Artillery, but afterwards removing to England, where the deceased was brought up. Entering the army during the Crimean war he served for a short time resigning his commission and came to this province. Deceased's father is still living, a retired Lieut.-General of the Royal Artillery, residing at Cheltenham, Gloucester, Eng. During the residence of the deceased in Victoria he was greatly respected by all who knew him. He was a leading member of the Pioneer Society, and a justice of the peace. He was 51 years of age. The flag on the government buildings has been placed at half mast as a last mark of respect to one of its most worthy officials.

OUR TOWN MAJOR.

Collecting for Sport—An Interview with the Old Boy.

Things are as dull as ditch water around town; the only busy ones seem to be Tom Burnes and His Worship the Mayor, in an endeavor to raise the wind to send our baseball boys off to Kamloops in regal state befitting a Royal City with a royal name. Tom is as lively as a cricket, and it's a wonder he's so. It is hard work at best of times to go a begging, even under favourable circumstances, but when a refusal is given where least expected, then, indeed, it is hard. Wharf street! Oh! Wharf street woe unto thee. Is this the way you intend to send forth the flower of the youth of your city to do battle for its honor and glory? Ah, me, it is a hard world to understand this our Victoria. Baseball may not be toney according to ideas, but what if it isn't? Skittles is low, and billiards high; where's the difference? The sending of our young men to combat with those of other cities and towns, should meet with support. The Major only wishes he had the wherewith and he would gladly foot the bill himself; but he, like a good many more, is glad to pick the crumbs that fall from the rich man's table. The boys will go to Kamloops nevertheless, and will proudly contend for the honor and glory of their beautiful Victoria.

It takes the Yanks to run Victoria. We have them doing the thing fine. Not long ago a Yankee detective came over to Victoria, (so we are informed by the papers) broke into a guest's room in one of our hotels, stole the guest's papers, then added insult to injury by arresting him, took him off to the States and then boasted of his smartness. That was bearding the lion in his den if you like. We had another Yank run a horse to death, then strove to shoot our people to death in the streets, all with impunity. Now we have another Yank—yank out of jail, go at large and yank a boat and other property from under the very eyes of our energetic police. That individual is now gone on a shooting expedition and may Yank something else before he quits our shores. Have we got a police force? Oh! yes, we have; they were looking after the runaway in their usual gentlemany style, running up and down the Saanich road in buggies, and at the same time running up a bill at the livery stables. One picnic to the Skeena is enough for a season; the provincial police know they want to search the woods for a runaway prisoner, they take a buggy—small blame to them; if it won't do anything else it will keep up the size of the bill. So goes the people's money and the reputation of our province.

"Good evening, Major," said the Major's gentlemanly acquaintance of a few evenings' ago. There was a smell, but not a gamey smell, you may be sure; if anything it was a relief to that pervading the streets. "Good evening to your majesty," replied the Major. "Thanks old fellow," said his majesty, "that's something like old times to hear you say so. You're off for a stroll. Yes, well, I'll have a chat with you as we stroll along. You needn't be afraid of being seen in my company. I go everywhere—to church, to the sewing circle, to the social gathering, to the City Council, the Jubilee Hospital meetings, in fact all over. I saw you at church yesterday: that's I suppose to make up for going with me on the excursion. Eh? Don't be put out. Can you guess where I was to-day. No. I was at one of my favorite meetings. Oh! we had as your preachers say, "a profitable time; how they did tear absent ones, both male and female to pieces. I must take you to some of my select places some time. You had a preacher yesterday talking about infidelity. Well, he might talk till he is blue in the face, and he would not convince one of my many people to his doctrine. I don't begrudge him the few he had listening to him; my followers were much more numerous. They were out enjoying themselves—some of them shooting, others, you know what. You've seen some of my wealthy ones, have you? You don't like their life, do you? I'll make you rich, wealthy, fine house, rich furniture, and the attractions of this beautiful place, if you only come back to me and join my army of the Pacific, but if you do, you must part with one thing, and that is—contentment. You must part with your present domestic enjoyment, your home comforts in the bosom of your family. I'm a hard taskmaster and exact my pound of flesh; besides the above, you must become selfish, grasping, hateful, envious, have a distrust of your fellow man, backbite your neighbors, find no pleasure or enjoyment in your beautiful Victoria. There! How do you like the conditions? What do you say? No, is it? Well, then, go and grovel in your own way. When you are old, worn out, and the little brain you've saved from my clothes is wasted in a vain attempt to fight me in this, my stronghold; when you are despised, looked down upon, kicked out of doors and derided as a fool for your pains, then you will think of my offer and be sorry you didn't accept it. Good night, fool." A faint blue light, a brimstone smell, and the Major was alone, contented to remain poor. What are riches under such conditions? Before leaving His Majesty placed a paper in the Major's hand on which the following was written:

A man renowned for repartee,
Will seldom scruple to make free,
With friendships finest feeling;
Will thrust a dagger at your breast,
And say he wounded you in jest,
By way of balm for healing.

Who ever keeps an open ear,
For tattlers will be sure to hear,
The trumpet of contention,
Aspersion is the babbler's trade,
To listen is to lend him aid,
And rush into dissension.

I've never in the course of my existence,
Beheld a woman who could hold her tongue,
For half an hour, without sleep's assistance,
If not born dumb, since from man first sprang;
For woman's tongue in spite of all resistance
Will still be restless, wedded or un-rung,
If I'd my will, to save poor hen-pecked fellows,
I'd have each made the clapper of a bellows.

The Major forgot to ask His Majesty about the fellows that sell coal at $10 a ton. They are all right with him, and if they do charge $10 a ton in this world they'll have plenty in the next, free gratis for nothing, and no "kidment" about it, so says THE TOWN MAJOR.

CONDEMNED TO DIE.

Chinaman in Barkerville Sentenced by Judge Crease to Death.

Barkerville, Sept. 11—At two o'clock this morning, after a somewhat lengthy and tedious trial, Mr. Justice Crease passed the sentence of death upon a Chinaman named Ah Moon, for murder and arson committed at Quesnelle, on November last. He is to be hanged on the 12th of November next.

Gordon Hydraulic Mining Co.

The Gordon Hydraulic Mining Co. has been formed to work the placer mines on Leich River. The officers of the company are W. G. Stevenson, President; J. B. Jones, Secretary; W. H. Dickson, Treasurer. The company have secured some 480 acres of land, about 12 miles from Goldstream, on Leech River. The capital is placed at $12,500, divided into 50,000 shares of 25 cents each. Plant for carrying on the work has been ordered and the company expect to commence operations in a few weeks. The old government ditch and dam will be utilized by the company. Young blood in the field of enterprise is bound to tell in the end, and the composition of the promoters of the Gordon Hydraulic Mining Co., animated by the buoyancy of youthful hopes and ambitions, will no doubt endeavor to give a good account of their undertaking. It will not be going too far to say that the forecast of this new enterprise promises fair towards a successful issue. There may perchance be a forlorn hope about embarking in the scheme that has been given up as a bad job. In the new undertaking we have youth, hope, energy and enterprise, which combined, will, in this instance, prove the old adage of try, try again.

Rev. Dr. Nourse.

Rev. Dr. Nourse's lecture on "John and Jonathan" was repeated at the Victoria last evening to a fair audience. It is needless to say that those present were delighted. Dr. Nourse, who was a guest of Mr. J. E. Gardner during his stay in the city, left for Vancouver this morning.

The new station building for the Northern Pacific in Winnipeg is located south of Water street, adjoining the premises of J. R. Sutherland.
